

Novartis India announces appointment of Milan Paleja as VC & MD

14 May 2018 | News

Paleja is currently country president at Novartis in India and is also responsible for the pharmaceuticals business in the country.

Drug firm Novartis India has announced the appointment of Milan Paleja as Vice Chairman and Managing Director, with effect from June 1.

Novartis India Ltd. said in a statement that Paleja is currently country president at Novartis in India and is also responsible for the pharmaceuticals business in the country. He is also a managing director of Novartis Healthcare Pvt Ltd.

Paleja is a graduate from Bombay University and holds a cost accounts degree from the Institute of Cost Accountants of India.

He has also worked as country president and head pharmaceuticals, Novartis Indonesia.