

Esperer Bioresearch strengthens senior leadership team

11 September 2019 | News

Announces appointment of Dhruv Arora as Global Business Head

Esperer Bioresearch Pvt. Ltd has appointed industry veteran Dhruv Ashish Arora as their Global Business Head. Having more than 17 years of experience in Healthcare, Banking and Market Research industry, Dhruv Arora has worked across geographies on a variety of transactions such business model restructuring, stake holder networking, relationship management and market analysis with good business foresight and regulatory understanding.

In his role at Esperer Bioresearch, Dhruv Arora will be responsible for strategizing and overseeing all export related activities for the companies Pharmaceutical & first time in the World to be a Patented Cancer-Nutrition Product formulation Technology.

Raktim Chattopadhyay, Founder & CEO Esperer Bioresearch said, "We are extremely pleased to welcome Dhruv as our Global Business Head. I am certain that his diverse, comprehensive experience will provide significant confidence and provide tremendous benefit to our business. Dhruv's appointment is imperative to our approach in discovering new growth avenues and providing a new dimension of our presence in the industry."

Speaking on his appointment, Dhruv Arora said "It is a pleasure to be part of Esperer Bioresearch, offering me a compelling platform to build and nurture the business in this rapidly changing environment. I am looking forward to creating zestful working in organization, scaling the business to new heights."

Dhruv's previous stint comprises of Vins Bio Products Pvt. Ltd. Hyderabad, Bharat Serums & Vaccines Ltd, Mumbai and Goldshield PLC. His competencies include identifying new markets operations for its Business Development activities.