

Mosaic Wellness raises $24 M in Series A

10 November 2021 | News

Funding round led by Sequoia Capital India

Mosaic Wellness, a Mumbai-based startup running digital health clinic platforms Manmatters and Bodywise, has raised $ 24 million in Series A. This round was led by Sequoia Capital India with participation from existing investors Elevation Capital and Matrix Partners India.

Mosaic previously raised a $10 million Seed round in December 2019 pre-launch from Elevation Capital, Sequoia Capital India & Matrix Partners India alongside marquee Angels like Jitendra Gupta, Kunal Shah and Jaydeep Barman.

Manmatters has now served more than 300K men across key therapeutic areas like dermatology, sexual health, hygiene, and nutrition. Bodywise has already served more than 100K women across key therapeutic areas like hair loss, PCOS, skin health, intimate health and nutrition.