Jalan will be responsible for driving Redcliffe's capital strategy

Redcliffe Labs, a pan-India purpose-driven diagnostics network, has announced the appointment of Rohit Jalan as its new Chief Investment Officer (CIO).

In this critical leadership role, Jalan will be responsible for driving Redcliffe's capital strategy, leading inorganic growth initiatives, and laying the groundwork for the company's IPO readiness.

As CIO, Jalan will steer strategic M&A, oversee pre-IPO fundraising, manage investor relations, and help shape the company's public market narrative. With over two decades of experience across investment banking, M&A, corporate development, and having been involved in 10+ successful public listings, Rohit brings a sharp strategic lens and deep financial acumen to the leadership team.

His successful leadership as the Chief Business Officer- Inorganic, where he led Redcliffe's Series C fundraise and executed multiple high-impact acquisitions across India, instills confidence in his ability to steer Redcliffe's growth.
